Leap of Faith

In 2012, you get an extra day. Since a year is 365.242 days long, Leap Year only occurs every four years. Ways for you to take a leap at different levels:

- Physical – Leap out of situations that no longer serve you. Leap into a new environment.
- Mental – Leap out of negative thought patterns. Leap into new perceptions.
- Emotional – Leap out of the drama triangle. Leap into emotional intelligence.
- Spiritual – Leap out of stagnation. Leap into synchronicity.

Your extra day is a bonus, an opportunity to re-evaluate where you're headed and make course corrections. Take advantage of all energies on this day. Make it your time to leap ahead and take a leap in consciousness. You can do it!

Unconditional Love

© Kim Rene Kiefer

The force of unconditional love is a very powerful thing. It's something that each human being desires at a very deep level. God's love is unconditional. There are no rules, rhymes, or reasons. This kind of love simply is. You, too, have the capacity for unconditional love. It is an extension and outpouring of the love you have for yourself. The more you love and appreciate yourself, the more you open the way to love and appreciate others. As the embodiment of love, there is no need for words. You ARE love.

Love Bugs

These bugs are curious creatures. Once mated, they stick to each other like glue. Reminding us to stick together, no matter what. That we can accomplish much more as one.
