Surrender

© Kim Rene Kiefer

Surrender is an act of letting go and letting God. Get your lower self out of the way, so your higher self can direct. Follow divine guidance. Take a leap of faith. All that you need is within, so look deep within yourself. Surrender to that part of yourself that is all knowing. Release any doubt.

Eagle

Eagles are known for their keen vision. You can use eagle vision to gain a higher perspective of your life. Look at your life's circumstances to assess value, learn lessons, and glean wisdom. You have the ability to rise above anything.

Poet's Corner

Distant eagle's flight
Soaring sultry thermal winds
Reaching higher heights

April Fools

The Fool leaps from the cliff without a backward glance. He or she knows that there really is no choice other than to take that leap of faith. Trust is the only path to follow.

April First is your opportunity to take a leap in your life. Where in your life have you stood still, rather than take a risk and leap? What holds you back? Is fear in control?

Replace fear with faith. Allow your intuition to rule over logic. Let your heart lead rather than your head. Trust your soul's stirrings and surrender. Have faith in yourself.

Your leap in life must be congruent with your life purpose. Pay attention to Spirit's direction. Listen to divine wisdom. Sense your inner guidance. Get in touch with your gifts. Feel your life path beneath sure feet.

Know that your leap of faith will bring a positive outcome. You will either land on solid ground, God will catch you, or you will soar like an eagle. Remember, eagles push their young from the nest so they can find their wings of flight. Find your wings, fly free, and soar like an eagle.
