High Road

© Kim Rene Kiefer

There is an old song that says, “You take the high road, and I’ll take the low road.” While the low road may seem easy at first, it is often muddy and full of potholes. You think you’ve taken a short cut. Guess again. Take the high road. You will be challenged, yet rewarded. Its view is all. Although it may be a rigorous climb, it’s worth it. Really.

Fireflies

There is a special joy that comes when you see that first firefly. You know there are more to come. Soon they light up the hot summer night with tiny bright flashes. Fireflies are symbolic of your hopes, wishes, dreams, aspirations. They signal you to trust and stay true to yourself. You are in perfect harmony with the rhythms of nature. Your life is full of synchronicities and flashes of insight. Even in your darkest of nights. Follow those flickering lights. Upward.

Winners Finish Strong

May brings us Memorial Day. With it, an historical race — the Indianapolis 500. Many of us are familiar with this famous sports event. Cars race the track for 500 laps to claim the finish line. It’s exciting to watch the cars weave in and around each other. They use daring tactics, maneuver harrowing turns, and sometimes hit the wall only to wipe out. Pit stops are timed to the second. It is a race against time and there is not a second to lose.

Does your life feel like a race? Are you winning or losing? Perhaps it does not matter. Winning is not about races and contests or even time tables. Do you have what it takes?

Winners value teamwork, collaboration, communication. They are persistent without being dogmatic. Optimistic yet realistic. Organized yet flexible. Outrageously unique yet quietly conservative. Do you get the idea?

A true winner has learned to embrace opposites. You can bring together within yourself key ingredients for success. Turn stumbling blocks into stepping stones. Use mistakes as learning experiences. Wield weaknesses as strengths.

There are inner and outer qualities to a winner. You will have your own winning qualities and spiritual gifts. They might include wisdom, grace under pressure, foresight, tenacity, integrity, honesty, conscientiousness, persistence, commitment, loyalty, inspiration, passion, service, etc.

Winning is about meeting and exceeding your personal best. It’s not about what other people think about you. Your race in life is yours alone. Others may join you. Even assist you. Yet in the end, it is entirely up to you.
