Service

© Kim Rene Kiefer

Service is something you can offer every day in all you do. Your energy of serving returns to you ten-fold or more. Find small and big ways to be of service to others as well as our planet. By serving others you serve yourself and our greater good. After all, service is “serve us.”

Quote

“The past is history. The future is a mystery. The moment is a gift. That’s why they call it the present.” ~ Deepak Chopra

Tis the Season

Holidays remind us to spend time with family and friends. It’s a time to give thanks, celebrate, and enjoy the moment. Yet, those less fortunate could use a helping hand. You have opportunities to be of service and make a difference. Find a way to give of yourself this holiday season, by contributing to someone in need. Consider the following:

- Volunteer at a shelter or soup kitchen.
- Package gifts for needy children.
- Deliver nourishing meals to housebound elders.
- Visit a hospice to sing some holiday cheer.

The possibilities are endless. And, if you need a little help, check out the latest issue of O magazine.

Dia de Los Muertos

Following All Hallows Eve (Halloween), is All Saints Day or Dia de Los Muertos. While you might find skeletons creepy, consider them a blessing. This day steeped in culture, mystery, and myth is one to celebrate your past.

Dia de Los Muertos celebrates and honors ancestors. You are a product of your past and your heritage, like it or not. It is deep within your psyche and your DNA. Celebrate it!

Your ancestors paved the way for you in many ways, obvious and hidden. They were not perfect, perhaps even a bit warped in their own way. Yet, they contributed to who you are today, for better or worse. Your pioneers!

Take time to honor your ancestors and lineage. This holds true for your blood, spiritual, and human families. Always remember and hold them close to your heart of hearts. We are all one, after all.
