Brotherhood

Humanity is the brotherhood of all men and women. We stand together in light and in darkness. Holding hands and uniting hearts across centuries, dimensions, galaxies, and universes. There is a love that never ends and continues to endure. It is a never-ending wave passed from generation to generation and soul to soul in past, present, and future.

Quote

“Watch CNN for five minutes each day so you know what to pray for.” ~ Starr Fuentes

Loon

The loon is known for its hauntingly eerie call. Its voice is a reminder to use our voice as appropriate. In one story, according to Ted Andrews, some believe that the loon's eerie call is that of a man's spirit calling out for justice.

Speak Up, Speak Out

Speaking up is not always easy. Although the squeaky wheel gets the grease, it may take time. By not speaking up, you do yourself and others a great dis-service. Sometimes it is best to stay silent. At other times it is important to speak truth. Social injustice, women's rights, global issues. These are things that need to be heard, seen, and felt.

We as a society can no longer live like ostriches with our heads in the sand. We must open our eyes, our ears, and our hearts to what is happening right in front of us and in the world. Within each of us is a voice to be heard, a force to be reckoned with, and a compass for social change.

Speak up, speak out, and be heard. Be a voice for change. You are more powerful than you give yourself credit for. You can make a difference. Believe in yourself. Speak up!

Mercy, Mercy Me ~ Marvin Gaye

Woo ah, mercy mercy me

Ah things ain't what they used to be, no no

Where did all the blue skies go?

Poison is the wind that blows from the north and south and east

Woo mercy, mercy me, mercy father

Ah things ain't what they used to be, no no

Oil wasted on the ocean and upon our seas, fish full of mercury

Ah oh mercy, mercy me

Ah things ain't what they used to be, no no

Radiation under ground and in the sky

Animals and birds who live nearby are dying

Oh mercy, mercy me

Ah things ain't what they used to be

What about this overcrowded land

How much more abuse from man can she stand?

Oh, na na...

My sweet Lord... No

My Lord... My sweet Lord
